The Lear Competition Festival

is a hub that brings networking and exciting opportunities for the antitrust community

ABOUT LCF23

The LCF is an international event that plans to bring together all the stakeholders in the antitrust community.

The LCF will host experts from a variety of backgrounds, who will address hot topics and cutting-edge debates on new competition tools, discussions of selected international cases, and advanced academic contributions on competition law, competition economics, competition policy, and regulation.

WHY PARTICIPATE?

ADVANCED DISCUSSIONS

Promoting and developing antitrust knowledge through plenary sessions on cutting-edge topics with outstanding speakers from regulatory and competition authorities, universities, legal and economic consultancies, firms, and international institutions.

PARALLEL SESSIONS

Dedicated sessions to discuss tools for economic and legal analysis in antitrust and regulation, methodologies and techniques to assess public policies, and presentation of recent and highly debated antitrust cases.

NATIONAL COMPETITION AUTHORITY ROUNDTABLE

Chairs and executive members of National Competition Authorities will share their experiences and discuss the challenges they face in their respective countries.

LCF TALK

Interviews with internationally renowned speakers in the field of competition law and economics, as well as presentations of books and magazines.

YOUNG TALENT COMPETITION AWARD

As part of the festival, Lear has established the Young Talent Competition Award (YTCA), for young economists and lawyers specializing in antitrust and regulation. The YTCA will award the best research proposal in the field. The research will be evaluated by a scientific committee of experts.

EXHIBITION AREA & OPEN DAY

A space dedicated to firms, consultancies, and companies to promote their business activities and increase brand awareness. The Open Day offers an opportunity for firms to meet young talents, comprising students, graduates, and even freelancers, interested in pursuing a career in antitrust and regulation.

NETWORKING & SOCIAL EVENTS

Informal events where to interact with international experts and keynote speakers to make new contacts and establish professional relations.

ABOUT

The LCF23 edition will start with the Open Day, a unique and exciting opportunity for students, graduates, and freelancers to meet potential employers and kickstart their networking activities.

WHY PARTICIPATE?

JOB MARKET

Gain access and get in touch with a large number of potential candidates with a background in antitrust gathered together in the same place.

BRAND AWARENESS

Promote your firm by presenting your corporate culture, projects, explaining your selection processes, and engaging in business opportunities.

NETWORK

Enjoy the opportunity of attending the LCF, where you can strengthen your connections, keep building your network with other participants and share your activities.
